View the sites of Baltimore—by land AND by water—aboard large amphibious vehicles (think WWI I landing boats). Ride along, high above the level of cars and SUVs, and part way through the tour, splash into the harbor to see more. This tour gets quack-tastic reviews from people of all ages!

Afterwards, plan to see more around Harborplace and perhaps have dinner. Your Wacky Quacker souvenir will get you a 10% discount at places such as Phillips Harborplace and others. Also, there are loads of coupons good for the area in both the Entertainment Book 2007 and Entertainment Book 2008. (Offers in the latter are good as soon as you buy the book.)

Deadline for reservation and payment:

Saturday, Sept. 22, 2007

Make your check payable to "Timonium Optimist Club" and bring it to a dinner meeting or mail it to: P.O. Box 262, Timonium, MD 21094.
